Dear St. Philip Neri Family and Friends,

We give praise and thanks to God for His graces and blessings!

Today we celebrate the great Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. It is a beautiful reminder that Jesus Christ is our King, the One who reigns over all creation. What makes our King so wonderful is that He is not a king who rules from a distance, concerned only with power or authority. Jesus is a King who is also a loving, caring, and merciful Shepherd. He is the Good Shepherd who knows His sheep, watches over them, protects them, and never stops loving them. In our first reading and in the Gospel today, we hear that beautiful image of God as the Shepherd who looks after His people. He seeks out the lost, brings back those who have wandered away, binds up the injured, and strengthens the weak. What a beautiful thought that the King of the Universe cares about each and every one of us personally! We are not simply a number or a face in a crowd. We are His children. He knows our struggles, our disappointments, our joys, and our needs. He never abandons us, even when we sometimes wander away from Him. There is something else that Jesus reminds us of in today's Gospel. The blessings, graces, and gifts that our Good Shepherd so generously gives us are not meant to be kept to ourselves. We are called to share those blessings with our brothers and sisters. Jesus makes it very clear that the way we treat one another is the way we treat Him. When we feed the hungry, welcome the stranger, comfort someone who is suffering, visit the lonely, or offer a helping hand to someone in need, we are doing those things for Christ Himself. Sometimes we think that serving Christ requires extraordinary things. But so often, it is found in the ordinary moments of our everyday lives. A kind word, a little patience, a willingness to forgive, a visit to someone who is lonely, or simply taking the time to recognize someone who needs our attention. These are the ways we allow the love and mercy of our King to be experienced by others. This is something we need to continue to take seriously as a parish family. St. Philip Neri Parish should be a place where people don't simply come to Mass, but where they encounter the love of Jesus Christ through one another. We should be a parish where people feel welcomed, where someone who is struggling finds encouragement, where those who are hurting find compassion, and where those who may have drifted away know that there is always a place for them.

We have been blessed in so many ways as a parish family. We have a beautiful church, a school, PREP, our ministries, and so many generous and faithful people. But our greatest blessing is the faith and love of Jesus Christ that we are called to share. We need to ask ourselves: Who in our parish family might need a little extra kindness? Who might be lonely, struggling, or feeling forgotten? Is there someone we can invite back to Sunday Mass? Is there someone who needs our forgiveness, our encouragement, or simply our time? Sometimes the greatest way we can bring someone closer to Christ is not through a long conversation, but through a simple act of love. Finally, today reminds us of something very important: We belong to the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. Through our Baptism, we have already become citizens of His Heavenly Kingdom. We have been given the beautiful gift of belonging to Him. We must ask ourselves: Are we living as citizens of His Kingdom? Do our words, our actions, our choices, and the way we treat one another reflect the love of our King? Our ultimate goal is to be with Jesus, our King forever in the Kingdom of Heaven. But we begin living that Kingdom right here, right now, in our homes, in our families, in our parish, in our schools, and in our everyday encounters with one another. What a blessing it is to have a King who is also our Good Shepherd! A King who loves us, forgives us, guides us, and continually showers us with His graces and blessings. May we never take those gifts for granted. May we always remember that the best way to thank our King for His love is to share that same love with others. May Jesus Christ, our King and our Good Shepherd, guide us throughout this life. May St. Philip Neri Parish always be a community where His love is experienced, His mercy is shared, and His presence is made known, so that one day we may all rejoice together in His eternal Kingdom.

During the month of November please remember to pray for the souls in purgatory.

I pray for you every day, especially at Mass. Please pray for me.

Please invite someone to Mass today. St. Philip Neri, pray for us.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Szparagowski
