Name Tag Sunday: On Sunday, November 9th, St. Philips will be sponsoring "Name Tag Sunday". In solidarity as parishioners of St. Philip Neri, we are asking all attendees at Mass to consider wearing the color blue to Mass on that day. In addition, when you arrive in your pew, there will be markers and name tags. Tag everyone in your family and enjoy looking around to find out the names of all of the people you've been seeing for years yet didn't know their names.

A Sincere Thank You to everyone who was so generous in their donations to the October drive for mothers and babies. Know that everything donated is needed and deeply appreciated. God bless you all.

– Loretta Zych

Flowers for Catholic Education The University Consortium for Catholic Education establishes and supports a collaborative cadre of primarily Catholic colleges and universities as they design and implement graduate level teaching service programs for the purpose of supporting PK-12 Catholic education in the United States. Flowers will be sold at the end of masses on Nov. 8-9 to raise money in support of fostering future Catholic school teachers.

SPN School News---Open House

Are you considering a Catholic School for your child/children? We will be having an Open House with school tours on Wednesday, November 12th from 9am to Noon and 7pm to 8pm. Please come and see why Saint Philip Neri School would be a good choice for your child/children. We're looking forward to seeing you!

Attendees will have the opportunity to sign-in and express an interest in registering their child/children for the 2015-2016 school year.

If you're unable to visit on November 12th, please call the school office to arrange an appointment for a more convenient day. Our phone number is 610-828-3082.
