The Fortnight for Freedom: Freedom to Serve will take place from June 21 to July 4, 2014, a time when our liturgical calendar celebrates a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome. The theme of this year's Fortnight will focus on the freedom to serve the poor and vulnerable in accord with human dignity and the Church's teaching. Once again, the observance of the Fortnight for Freedom will be parish-based in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

The following are some ways to participate in the Fortnight for Freedom 2014:

Encourage the daily praying of the Rosary before/after Mass, as part of parish meetings, and in homes for the protection of religious freedom.

Encourage adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament for the protection of religious freedom.

Encourage the inclusion of a prayer for religious freedom in all meetings and assemblies in the parish during these two weeks.

Highlight the parish outreach efforts, especially to the needy and the poor, to demonstrate how religious freedom enables the Church to be of service to others.

Additional prayer and related resources in English, Spanish and other languages, for the Fortnight for Freedom 2014 can be found at:
