Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament

 9AM to 5PM in the Chapel

Over the last few weeks there have been several incidents of someone finding consecrated Hosts in the Church. This week a Host was found in the church parking lot. This is a desecration of the Blessed Sacrament and is a grievous sin. I ask our parishioners to please be aware of those around you to see if they consume the Host and if they don't, or you suspect anyone of not properly consuming the Host in a timely manner, please try to identify the person and tell one of our priests or deacon.

Dear Parishioners of St. Philip Neri,

I always try to take a short cut if I can, so I apologize for doing that in thanking so many of you for your gifts and cards at Christmas time. Rather than looking up addresses and writing notes I thought I would just use the parish bulletin! What I am most grateful for is your acceptance of me into your parish since my retirement. I do enjoy living here with Msgr. Vance and Fr. Anthony, they are wonderful house mates! Thank you once again and I wish all of you a blessed 2019!

In Christ' peace,
Fr. Dooner
