2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thoughts from Fr. Szparagowski

We give praise and thanks to God for the graces He has given us. In our Gospel reading today, St. John the Baptist identifies Jesus as “the Lamb of God”, to the people at the Jordan River. The people did not realize God was truly in their midst and quietly walking with them. Now they could touch and speak to God – Jesus. If St. John did not point Jesus out to them; the people would have never known God was right next to them. How many times in our busy lives do we go about our routines unaware of the presence of God? How many times in a day does Jesus quietly come to us giving us His graces and we did not know? We need to believe we have a personal and loving God. He is the Good Shepherd always guiding and protecting His flock. I know from my own experience many times we do not feel God’s presence or hear Him speaking to us. This does not mean He is not with us. Like the people at the Jordan River, at times we need someone to point out God’s presence in our lives and then open our hearts to “the Lamb of God.”

On Martin Luther King Day some of our students attended morning Mass and were involved in different service projects.

Invite someone to Mass today.
St. Philip Neri, pray for us.

Fr. Szparagowski
