We Pray

For all those who have gone on before us marked with the sign of faith, especially, Virginia Boyle & Rose Stanish may God grant them eternal rest and give hopeful peace to those who mourn.

This week the Sanctuary Lamp will burn in memory of the Corriere & Gregory Families requested by Ann & Rich.

Friday, February 3rd is the Feast of St. Blaise, blessing of throats will be available after all Masses on the weekend of Feb 4th & 5th.

Thoughts from Fr. Szparagowski

We give praise and thanks to God for the graces He has given us. Do you feel “blessed” today? We may think the blessed are only special people who are close to God. Jesus teaches us otherwise. In our Gospel reading, Jesus teaches us of those who are blessed. As we listen to Jesus, we hear how many ordinary people are blessed in many different situations in their lives. One common similarity of all those who are blessed, is their hearts are open to God. They may not realize this and believe they are just going about their daily life, when in reality, their open hearts allow God to unite Himself to them. Do you hear Jesus saying, “You are one of my blessed ones.” Our response to Jesus may be “me, how?” Jesus may look at us smiling and say, “your heart was open to Me and My graces.”
I pray you feel blessed today.

This week we are celebrating Catholic Schools week. We are thankful to have St. Philip Neri School and Prep. Thank you, to all of you for supporting and educating our children in our Catholic Faith. Please stop by and visit the school!

Invite someone to Mass today.
St. Philip Neri, pray for us.
Have a blessed day!

Fr. Szparagowski

Fr. Szparagowski is going on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, he would like to take your prayer intentions with him as he visits the holy sites. Please write your intentions in the intentions book in the back of the Church. We wish him a safe and blessed trip!
Deadline is February 3rd.

Update: The Church Office will be sending out tax letter for your 2022 contributions to St. Philip Neri, call 610-834-1975.
