Dear St. Philip Neri Families & Friends

We give praise and thanks to God for the graces He has given us. In the rich tapestry of Catholic spirituality, two sources of inspiration come together to illuminate our faith journey; the life and teachings of St. Teresa of Avila and the prophetic vision of Isaiah 25:6-10. These distinct yet harmonious voices guide us toward a deeper understanding of our relationship with God and the profound banquet of divine love that awaits us. Isaiah 25:6-10 paints a vivid picture of a sumptuous banquet prepared by the Lord Himself – feast of rich foods and choice wines, a place where tears are wiped away, and mourning and disgrace are no more. This vision is a foretaste of God's Kingdom, an invitation extended to all people, a promise of redemption, and a celebration of divine love. As we reflect on these verses, we are reminded of God's universal invitation to salvation, an invitation that transcends barriers and welcomes all who turn to Him. St. Teresa of Jesus, often referred to as St. Teresa of Avila, stands as a shining beacon in the history of the Catholic Church. Her life and teachings continue to inspire and guide countless souls on their journey of faith. As a virgin, mystic, and doctor of the Church, St. Teresa offers us profound lessons in spirituality and a deep, personal relationship with God. She invites us to explore the inner chambers of our hearts – a journey akin to entering the mystical banquet of Isaiah's prophecy. St. Teresa's wisdom teaches us that prayer is not merely a recitation of words but a profound dialogue with the Divine. She encourages us to cultivate silence and contemplation, creating a sacred space within ourselves where God's presence can be encountered. In this inner banquet, we experience the transformative power of divine love, just as Isaiah envisioned a feast that turns sorrow into joy and mourning into dancing. Both Isaiah and St. Teresa remind us that this spiritual banquet is not without its challenges. Isaiah acknowledges the pain and sorrow of life, and St. Teresa experienced her own trials and tribulations on her spiritual journey. Yet, both point to the enduring hope and joy that come from a profound relationship with God. St. Teresa's teachings on prayer and contemplation are particularly relevant in our fast-paced and noisy world. She reminds us of the need to cultivate a quiet and receptive heart, creating a space where God's voice can be heard. In a world filled with distractions, her wisdom calls us to seek silence and solitude as being necessary for a deep communion with God. In the union of these two spiritual treasures, we discover a banquet not only of earthly delights but also of heavenly grace – a feast of divine love. It is an invitation to draw closer to God through prayer, contemplation, and a heart open to His transforming love. As we journey through the inner chambers of our souls, may we find solace in the promise of Isaiah and the guidance of St. Teresa, knowing that our tears will be wiped away, and we will one day partake in the eternal banquet of the Lamb.

Please invite someone to Mass.

St. Philip Neri pray for us!

Please pray for me, have a blessed week!

A portrait of St. Philip Neri has been blessed and placed in the sanctuary. He is the patron of laughter, humor & joy.

Dedication Prayer

As you filled St. Philip's heart in a unique way with the presence of the Holy Spirit, you gave St. Philip the graces of burning love and joy for you and your people. May all who look upon this image be blessed with your love and mercy. St. Philip, as you walked the streets of Rome you prayed for and carried God's people in your heart; wishing to bring all people closer to God. We ask you to please walk with us, and as we bring our petitions to you, please intercede and bring them before the throne of God.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
