"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; the bread that I will give in my flesh for the life of the world."

Dear St. Philip Neri families & friends, we give praise and thanks to God for the graces He has given us! Today's readings invite us to contemplate two beautiful and profound images; the banquet of Wisdom and the Bread of Life. These are not just literary symbols but divine realities that beckon us to deeper intimacy with God. In the first reading from Proverbs, we encounter Wisdom personified as a woman who has built her house, set her table, and invites all who are simple to come and eat of her bread and drink of her wine. This imagery is rich with meaning. Wisdom, in the biblical sense, is not merely knowledge or cleverness but a divine gift that leads us to live in harmony with God's will. Wisdom invites us to leave behind our ignorance and folly, to partake in a meal that nourishes not just the body but the soul. It is a call to conversion, to walk in the way of insight, which is the path of life.

This invitation to a banquet of divine wisdom finds its perfect fulfillment in the Gospel we hear today. Jesus, speaking to the crowds, declares, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The people are puzzled and even scandalized by His words, but Jesus does not back down. He intensifies His message; "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have life within you." Here we see that Jesus is not just offering a metaphorical meal but His very self. He is the Bread of Life, the true sustenance for our souls. Just as the bread in Proverbs symbolizes the wisdom that leads to life, the bread that Jesus offers is His flesh, given for the life of the world. This is the mystery of the Eucharist, the source and summit of our faith, where we receive Christ Himself under the appearances of bread and wine. In the Eucharist, we partake in the divine life, receiving the grace and strength to live as disciples of Christ. The connection between the two readings becomes clear; to accept the invitation of Wisdom in proverbs is to accept Christ in the Eucharist.

Wisdom calls us to live according to God's will, and Christ, the embodiment of divine Wisdom, gives us the grace to do so through His Body and Blood. When we receive the Eucharist, we are not only nourished spiritually but also united more deeply with Christ and with one another – "Holy Communion". This sacramental union transforms us, enabling us to live in true wisdom and holiness. Let us therefore, heed the call of Wisdom and the words of Jesus.

Let us approach the altar with hearts open to the mystery we receive, aware that in this holy sacrament, we encounter the living God. May this encounter nourish us, strengthen us, and lead us to eternal life.

May God bless you all, please invite someone to Mass.

St. Philip Neri, pray for us!

Fr. Szparagowski

OCIA

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Respect Life Corner

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now, and his mother can feel his movement. Before this time, he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it – the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling.

We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

Summer Repairs Collection

The annual Summer Repairs Collection envelope has been sent to all parishioner's. If you haven't received yours please call the Church Office at 610-834-1975. This critical collection is for higher priced repairs over and above routine maintenance. As our campus ages these special maintenance projects, unfortunately, become more plentiful. This year projects include; electrical upgrades in the school, gym lighting, phone system and stained glass windows repair and caulking. Please be as generous as your budget's allow, and, as always, thank you for your generous and unfailing support of our parish.

Are you a Parent who has Lost a Child?

An informal group of moms & dads get together to talk or just listen. Contact Judy Sturm at 610-909-2034 or Karen Montgomery at 215-920-5269 for more details.

Due to high speed and traffic volume, we have installed speed bumps at the Germantown Pike entrance and the traffic lanes adjacent to the school. Unfortunately, the parking lot has become a neighborhood "cut-thru", we are trying to slow traffic down as often there are children playing on our parish campus. Please slow down.

Go to the parish website to sign up, it's easy, free and can be stopped or adjusted at any time. In these busy times please do not forget your parish and help us, if you can, to meet our unchanged financial obligations.

As always, thank you for your generosity!
