Pre Jordan / Baptismal Instruction

If you are having your first child baptized, the archdiocese requires the parents to attend a Pre-Jordan Class. Deacon Mike Cipressi hosts these virtual classes on a monthly basis.

Call the Church Office at 610-834-1975.

Our parish family welcomes James Thomas, son of Christopher & Michelle Dancer, Finn Noah, son of Aidan & Monica O'Kane, Emilia Mary, daughter of James & Christine Pienkowski, and Wesley Reed, son of Mark & Laura Tusciano all baptized recently!

Dear St. Philip Neri families & friends, we give praise and thanks to God for the graces He has given us! In our Sunday readings, we encounter two moments where God's work overflows beyond the boundaries that people expect. Both in the Book of Numbers and in the Gospel of Mark, we see the message that God's Spirit is not confined by human expectations or limitations. We are called to cultivate a generous spirit and an open heart as we follow God's will. In the first reading, we find Moses overwhelmed by the burden of leading the people of Israel. To help him, God tells Moses to gather seventy elders, and He shares the spirit that was upon Moses with them. When the Spirit comes upon them, they begin to prophesy. However, two men – Eldad and Medad – who were not with the other seventy, also begin to prophesy in the camp. Joshua, Moses' assistant, sees this and tells Moses to stop them. But Moses responds with wisdom and generosity; "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the Lord were prophets, and that the Lord would put His Spirit on them!" Moses recognized that the Spirit of God is not confined to just a select few. He longs for everyone to be filled with the spirit and to participate in God's work. His openness and humility are an example for us – he doesn't cling to power and privilege, but welcomes God's grace wherever it appears. In the Gospel, we see a similar scenario unfold with the disciples of Jesus. John comes to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him because he does not follow us. Like Joshua in the first reading, the disciples are concerned that someone outside their group is acting with God's power. But Jesus responds, "Do not stop him. For no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us." Jesus is teaching His disciples that the mission of God is bigger than any one group or individual. The disciples were focused on their group's special status, but Jesus reminds them that anyone who works in His name is part of the larger mission. He challenges them to see that the Kingdom of God is broader than they can imagine. Both readings today invite us to reflect on the dangers of exclusivity and jealousy in our faith. Whether it's Joshua worried about Eldad and Medad prophesying, or John concerned about the outsider casting out demons, the underlying issue is the human tendency to want to control or limit how God works. Moses' and Jesus' responses point us toward a different attitude; on of generosity, openness, and humility. Moses wishes that all God's people would receive the Spirit, and Jesus welcomes anyone who works in His name. Both invite us to recognize that God's Spirit moves freely, and we are called to rejoice whenever and wherever we see God at work, even if it's in ways we don't expect or through people we might not know or understand. After Jesus teaches the disciples about inclusion, He goes on to warn them about "stumbling blocks" – those things that cause others to sin. He uses strong language, saying that it's better to cut off a hand or foot or pluck out an eye than to be thrown into Gehenna.

While these words are dramatic, Jesus is making an important point; anything that leads us away from God or causes harm to others is a serious matter. In the context of today's readings, one of the stumbling blocks we can fall into is the sin of jealousy, pride, or the desire to control God's work. When we become narrow in our thinking, when we exclude others from God's mission, we risk leading others astray and even harming the Body of Christ. We must constantly examine our hearts to ensure that we are not putting up barriers that prevent others from experiencing God's grace or using their gifts for His glory. Avoid stumbling blocks; we must be careful not to let pride, jealousy, or exclusivity become stumbling blocks in our spiritual lives.

Let us ask ourselves; Are we creating barriers that keep others from fully participating in the life of faith? Are we trying to limit God's work to our own expectations? In today's readings, God calls us to a spirit of generosity and openness. We are invited to recognize that His Spirit is at work in ways that may surprise us, and to celebrate whenever we see God's hand at work in this world. Let us avoid the stumbling blocks of pride or exclusion, and instead, open our hearts to the fullness of God's mission, rejoicing in His work wherever we find it.

Please invite someone to Mass today.

St. Philip Neri, pray for us! Have a blessed week.

Fr. Szparagowski

Parish 40 Hours Devotion

September 29th to October 1st

Annual 40 Hours will begin today after the 11AM Mass. Evening Prayer and Benediction will be held at 7PM on Sunday, Monday & Tuesday evenings. Fr. Shane Flanagan is our celebrant and homilist, his theme will be "What do you want me to do for you?" (Mark 10:46-52). Fr. Flanagan is Parochial Vicar at Our Lady of Mount Carmel in Doylestown. Forty Hours provides time to deepen our appreciation of the Eucharist and to pray before the Lord in solemn adoration. The world needs Christ in these troubled times, come and reach out to Him and pray for His guidance and graces. The Church will be open continuously for the forty hours for personal adoration, please take the time for personal visits.

Dear St. Philip Neri Family,

October Count

During the month of October, as is customary, all parishes in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia are asked to record our Sunday Mass attendance. This data is essential for the archdiocese's future strategic planning, as it helps us identify trends in Mass participation, both at our parish and across the entire Archdiocese.

As you can see from the data below, we have experienced a downward trend in Sunday Mass attendance over the past few years: Do not lose Hope---God is with us!

- 2017: 1,631
- 2018: 1,537
- 2019: 1,495
- 2020: 1,495
- 2021: 1,152
- 2022: 1,051
- 2023: 1,079

This decrease in attendance is not unique to our parish but reflects a broader trend throughout the Archdiocese. While there are many factors that may contribute to this decline, I believe it is crucial that we respond with faith, hope, a joyful heart and a renewed sense of mission.

Pray for our brothers and sisters who, for various reasons, have stepped away from regular Mass attendance. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to open their hearts to the call of God and the beauty of the Eucharist, which is the source and summit of our faith. I firmly believe that the Mass is the heart of our relationship with God, and I know that many who are distant may simply be waiting for an invitation to return.

I encourage you to invite friends and family who may not be attending Mass regularly to join you on Sundays. A personal invitation can make a world of difference, especially if it comes from someone they know and trust. Whether it is a special occasion, a holiday Mass, or simply a desire to reconnect with the faith, your invitation could be the start of someone's journey back to Jesus and His Church.

Additionally, if you or someone you know feels distant from the Church, remember that we are here to support you. I am and our parish staff are available for conversations, confessions, or any questions you may have about returning to the faith or rediscovering the beauty of the Eucharist.

Let's continue to pray together for a renewal in our parish and across the Archdiocese. Together, we can work towards strengthening our faith community and helping others feel welcomed and embraced by God's love.

St. Monica Club

Have your loved ones drifted away from the Church?

Are you worried they may not return? Follow the example of St. Monica and PRAY WITHOUT CEASING! Join us for our next meeting on Sept 24th at 7PM in the convent chapel. We pray together, talk about how to love those who are rejecting the faith and be good witnesses to them, and share good news when prayers are answered. Contact Sharon Otto at 484-804-1875. Park in front of convent garage and use main door.

Summer Repairs Collection

Thanks to all who contributed to the collection.

Our Church windows have been recaulked, and the Church window and door frames have been painted. Church carpets have been cleaned. Church doors, the bell tower and the crucifix in the circle have all been painted. A new phone system has been installed linking the entire campus together. The major electrical work in the school, replacing antiquated circuit breakers and boards is nearly completed, the altar lighting is being worked on as well as the school gym lighting. Your contributions make this possible. As you well know its crucial to keep up with necessary repairs before they become overwhelming. If you haven't helped already and would like to, just drop an envelope in the collection basket or send to the Church Office.

As always, thank you for your generous and unfailing support of our parish.
