November is the Month of All Souls

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that "every spiritual soul is created immediately by God – it is not "produced" by the parents – and also that it is immortal: it does not perish when it separates from the body at death, and it will be reunited with the body at the final resurrection."

The Catechism defines purgatory as a "purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven," which is experienced by those "who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified."

"It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins." 2 Maccabees 12:46

All Souls Mass, November 6th at 7PM

Our special parish Mass to remember all those who have been called home to God this year. All souls buried from SPN are already included, if you have someone you would like to be remembered please call the parish office at 610-834-1975.

We give praise and thanks to God for the graces and blessings He has given us. Today's Gospel from Mark 12:28-34 is one of the most profound teachings on love in Scripture. When the scribe asks Jesus, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus responds by teaching us what lies at the very heart of our faith: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength", and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." In these two commandments we find the whole path of discipleship – a path of love that is both vertical, to God, and horizontal, to our neighbors. As we reflect on these commandments, we enter into the month of November, dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. This connection is essential because our love of neighbor extends even to those who have passed from this world. The Church teaches us that we can help our brothers and sisters who are in Purgatory by our prayers, sacrifices, and Mass offerings. In this way, we embody Jesus' command to love our neighbors by spiritually supporting those who are being purified before they enter heaven. Loving God with our whole being is also a call to trust in His mercy and justice. God desires all souls to be saved, and through Purgatory, He mercifully prepares souls for the full vision of heaven. This means that our love for God is shown not only in how we live but also in how we hope and pray for the souls of our departed loved ones.

As we intercede for the Holy Souls, we imitate God's own love and mercy, trusting in His promise of eternal life and showing that we believe in the communion of saints, where we are forever united with God and one another. November invites us to deepen our understanding of love, which reaches beyond the limits of this earthly life. When we pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, we are reminded of our own need for God's mercy, and we draw closer to Him in humility and compassion. Every Mass, every rosary, and every sacrifice we offer this month is a way of living out Jesus' commandments in an eternal sense – loving God, and loving others, even beyond the grave. As we remember the Holy Souls, let us ask ourselves: how can we love God and others more fully, not only in this life but in the next? May this month inspire us to acts of love, intercession, and hope, drawing us closer to God and to the Communion of Saints. By living out these two great commandments, we draw near to the Kingdom of God, where one day we hope to join all those souls we now pray for in eternal life with Christ.

May God bless you all, please invite someone to Mass today.

St. Philip Neri, pray for us.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Szparagowski

My Jesus, by the sorrows you suffered in your agony in the garden, scourging, crowning with thorns and your crucifixion and death, have mercy on the souls in purgatory, and especially on those that are most forsaken; deliver them from the dire torments they endure; call them and admit them to Your most sweet embrace in paradise. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord.
