“Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.”

We give praise and thanks to God for the graces and blessings He has given us! On this First Sunday of Lent, we are invited to reflect on the temptation of Jesus in the desert, as described in Luke 4:1-13. Just as Jesus spent forty days in the wilderness preparing for His ministry, we too enter this sacred season of penance, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. The number “forty” in the Bible symbolizes a period of testing and purification, a theme that is especially meaningful during Lent. It is a time for us to examine our hearts, resist temptation, and grow closer to God. In the desert, Jesus faced temptations aimed at undermining His trust in God’s plan. Through prayer, fasting, and reliance of Scripture, He was able to remain faithful and resist the devil’s offers. Lent invites us to follow His example. Just as Jesus fasted, we are called to give up something that might distract us from God. Fasting is not about self-punishment but about making space for God and training ourselves to rely on His strength rather than the comforts of the world. As Jesus reminds us, “Man shall not live by bread alone” (Luke 4:4). Our true nourishment comes from God, not from worldly things. In addition to fasting, Lent is a time to add spiritual practices such as prayer, Scripture reading, and almsgiving. Prayer helps us grow closer to God, aligning our hearts with His will. Scripture strengthens us in times of temptation and keeps us focused on the Lord’s Word. Almsgiving is an opportunity to serve others, reflecting the love and compassion of Christ. Through these three practices – fasting, prayer, and almsgiving – we are called to purify our hearts, grow in holiness, and become more faithful disciples of Jesus. As we embark on our Lenten journey, it is helpful to make use of modern tools to support our spiritual growth. Apps like Hallow, Ascension Press, and Word on Fire offer wonderful resources for Lenten prayers, reflections, and challenges. These tools provide daily meditations and Scripture-based exercises that help us stay spiritually engaged throughout this holy season, enhancing our prayer life and drawing us closer to Christ. Lent is a time to remember that, just as Jesus overcame temptation in the desert, we too can find strength in God’s Word, prayer, and acts of service. May this season of Lent lead us to a deeper faith and prepare us to celebrate the joy of the Resurrection at Easter,

Please invite someone to Mass today

St. Philip Neri, pray for us.

May God bless you all.
