Masses at 7:30AM, 9:30AM & 11AM

We give praise and thanks to God for the graces and blessings He has given us! On this 5th Sunday of Lent, today's Gospel presents one of the most tender and powerful images of God's mercy. A woman, caught in adultery, is brought before Jesus. Her guilt is not in question. She stands in shame, surrounded by people ready to condemn her, but Jesus does something unexpected. He does not condemn,

He shows mercy. He speaks those life-changing words;

"Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin anymore."

This is the heart of the Gospel, Jesus doesn't deny the reality of sin, but He responds with mercy that is deeper than any sin, more powerful than any failure, more enduring than any shame. God's mercy is not limited. It is not cautious. It is not conditional. It is an ocean – endless, unfathomable, and always ready to receive us.

That same ocean of mercy is open to each one of us – especially in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Lent is the season of return to God with open hearts. It is a time when Jesus is calling us, not to beat ourselves up, but to come home. He longs to forgive, to heal, and to free us. Like the woman in the Gospel, we don't need to hide our sins – we need to bring them to Jesus.

Some of us may feel like it's been too long. Or maybe we're afraid. But confession is not a place of judgement – it is a place of mercy and healing. It is the heart of Christ opened to us. When we kneel in that confessional, we do not meet a harsh judge - we meet our Savior, stooping down, writing in the dust, lifting us up.

If it has been months, years, or even decades, this is the time to come back! Don't be afraid. Jesus is waiting – not to scold you, but to forgive you. His words are the same; "Neither do I condemn you." Let us not let this Lent pass without diving into that ocean of mercy. Make time for Confession. Bring your burdens, lay them at the feet of Jesus, and leave the confessional like that woman – freed, forgiven, and deeply loved.

Our Parish penance Service is on Wednesday, April 9th at 7PM.

Please invite someone to Mass today
St. Philip Neri, pray for us.
May God bless you all.
