Family Collection Envelopes

Our current church envelope company has once again failed to timely deliver the most recent mailing for the months of November and December. As of November 3rd, the current set of envelopes are being processed and mailed so you should see them in the coming week. As of January, we have contracted with a new company that is widely used throughout the archdiocese and beyond, providing church envelopes for over 100 years. The new envelope company uses a "coupon" based system and will be packaged and sent to you quarterly. We thank you for your continued support as we work through these challenges. One option that is always available, is to place your donation in the basket at Church in a plain envelop with your name and address and our collection counters will send the information to the Church Office and your donations will be recorded in our system. Thank you for your understanding and patience.

Our parish community extends a welcome to our guests and visitors. We welcome you to our Church to share our faith and celebrate the Eucharist. Please go to our website:www.saintphilipnerichurch.com for more information or if you have any questions or want to register call the Church Office at 610-834-1975. In order to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist or Matrimony or to have access to Letters of Eligibility to stand as a godparent at Baptism or sponsor at Confirmation you need to be registered and active with a parish. Young adults who turn 26 or complete higher education and continue to reside within our area should register individually.

Confessions are heard every Saturday from 3:45PM to 4:45PM or by appointment, call 610-834-1975 to schedule.

We Pray for our Beloved Deceased

For all those souls who have gone on before us marked with the sign of faith, especially John Conway, Mary Ellen Fitzpatrick, Gloria Leidig, Barbara Ann Whitehead and the souls in purgatory. May God, in His mercy, grant them eternal rest and give peace to those who mourn.

Low Gluten Hosts

Lab certified, under 20 parts per million are available at every Mass. The celebrant will have them available, simply ask him when you present to receive.

Dear St. Philip Neri Family and Friends,

We give praise and thanks to God for His graces and blessings!

There are many beautiful gifts that God gives us in this life and one of the most beautiful gifts that God gives to many people is the gift of a wife or a husband. Today, I would especially like to speak about the beauty of the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony. When I look out at our parish family, I see so many husbands and wives who have been married for many years. I see couples who have raised children, welcomed grandchildren, and have stood by one another through the joys and difficulties of life. I want to say to all of our married couples: thank you for your witness. Never underestimate the witness that you give to others. In a world where marriage is sometimes no longer understood or appreciated, a husband and wife who continue to love one another, remain faithful to one another, forgive one another, and sacrifice for one another are giving a powerful witness. You are showing your children, your grandchildren, and our young people that a holy and faithful marriage is possible. Sadly, we know that there are many challenges facing marriage today. We hear the statistics that marriages in the Catholic Church have declined dramatically 75% since 1970, and that many young adults today no longer believe in or fully understand the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony. That should concern all of us. But more importantly, it should encourage all of us to pray. We need to pray for our young people. We need to pray that they may once again see the beauty of what God intended marriage to be. Holy Matrimony is much more than a beautiful wedding day. It is much more than a reception, flowers, photographs, and a celebration. It is a Sacrament. It is a vocation. It is a sacred covenant made with God. Through the Sacrament of Matrimony, God gives a husband and wife the grace they need to love one another, to forgive one another, and to remain faithful to one another—even during the difficult times. I truly believe that one of the most beautiful things about marriage is this: when God brings a husband and wife together, He brings them together to help each other become saints. Think about that for a moment. God brings two people together, not simply so that they can share a home or build a life together. He brings them together so that they can help each other get to heaven. A husband should help his wife grow closer to Jesus. A wife should help her husband grow closer to Jesus. They pray for one another. They encourage one another. They forgive one another. They sacrifice for one another. They carry one another through difficult times. Together, they walk toward heaven. What a beautiful gift. What a beautiful vocation. So, I would encourage all of our married couples: continue to be witnesses. Your children and grandchildren are watching you. Our young people are watching you. They need to see that love is more than a feeling. True love is sacrificial. True love is faithful. True love sometimes means putting the needs of another person before our own. That is the kind of love that Christ has for us. In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that God has entrusted each of us with gifts. We are called to use those gifts faithfully. One day, we will stand before the Lord. What beautiful words it would be to hear Jesus say to us: "Well done, good and faithful servant… Come, share your master's joy." Life is not always easy. Marriage is not always easy. Raising children is not always easy. Being faithful to God is not always easy. But when we trust in the Lord, when we keep our hearts open to Him, and when we remain faithful—even during difficult times—we know that God is with us. So today, let us pray for all married couples, especially those who may be struggling. Let us pray for those preparing for marriage. Let us especially pray for our young people, that they may come to see the beautiful gift of the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony and not be afraid to answer God's call. May all of us—whether married, single, priests, or religious—faithfully use the gifts and vocations God has given us. So that one day, at the end of our earthly journey, we may hear those beautiful words from the Lord: "Well done, good and faithful servant… Come, share your master's joy."

During the month of November please remember to pray for the souls in purgatory.

I pray for you every day, especially at Mass. Please pray for me.

Please invite someone to Mass today. St. Philip Neri, pray for us.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Szparagowski

Baptism

Baptisms are scheduled on the 2nd & 4th Sunday of every month immediately following the 11AM Mass. Godparents need Letters of Eligibility, for first time parents the Pre-Jordan Class is required. Call the Church Office at 610-834-1975 to make arrangements.

Marriage

Arrangements must be made with a priest at least 6 months prior to wedding date. Pre-Cana classes are required, contact Church office at 610-834-1975.

Anointing of the Sick

Primarily intended as prayers and anointing for healing from serious illness or as a spiritual preparation before surgery. Last Rites or Extreme Unction are for those in danger of imminent death. Call rectory or Church Office.

St. Monica Club

Do you have family or friends who have drifted from the Church? You don't have to carry the concern alone. We follow St. Monica's example by praying simply and persistently for those we love. No "perfect" prayers required…just a heart of hope. Next meeting is November 17th at 7PM, in the convent chapel. Call Sharon Otto at 484-804-1875.

Thank from Sisters of St Joseph in Camden

(Crib Collection in October)
Thanks ever so much for the baby items collected for the moms and children who come for our assistance. Your donations of so many items are such a gift to our neighbors in Camden. Your outreach truly is an example of "your love of God which makes you do great things!" We are so very grateful for your support and generosity. A promise to keep you in prayer and I ask you to pray for our neighbors and our ministry to and with them.
